Brad J. Keil
Chief of Police

On Monday, October 2, 2006 at approximately 3:31 pm Bank Mutual, 6209 Century Ave in Middleton was robbed.

The suspect is described as a skinny white male, approximately 5'8", unshaven (3-4days growth), with brown hair. He was wearing a grey tee-shirt, blue jeans, a green baseball cap with white lettering and carrying a purple canvas bag.

The suspect did not display a gun, but threatened in his note that he had one. The suspect fled with the note and money.

Middleton police officers recovered the canvass bag, a red exploded die pack, and the all of the money approximately 300 feet away from the bank.

There are no photos or video of the robbery. A sketch of the suspect has been completed.

Anyone with information is encouraged to contact Detective Dave Haselow at 608-827-1021 or dhaselow@ci.middleton.wi.us.
